*Johnson v City of New York,
16-cv-6426 (KAM) (VMS)*

Dear Judge Scanlon:

As one of the plaintiff's counsel in the above-referenced action, I am writing to inform the Court of the status of the deposition subpoena that the plaintiff issued for New York Post journalist Sue Edelman. Unfortunately, we are not able to work out an agreement regarding the subpoena and the Post's counsel has informed me that they will be filing a motion to quash.

Under these circumstances, I am writing to request with the consent of the Post's counsel that the Court establish a briefing schedule for the motion as follows: motion to quash served and filed by April 4, 2019; opposition served and filed by April 18th; and reply served and filed by April 25th.

I have already inform the counsel for the Post that it is our position that the reporter's privilege has been waived when one of the reporter's sources was revealed to Peter Gleason, Esq., by the reporter. I have also already provided counsel with a copy of Mr. Gleason's written deposition, which details those facts. As such, I believe that the proposed motion can be specifically focus on the waiver issue.

Respectfully submitted,

Nathaniel B. Smith
